

2024 PIT Count

January 23 – 26, 2024

The Point-in-Time (PIT) Count is a survey of people experiencing homelessness in the United States. The data is crucial to develop and fund programs and services. The PIT Count is led by Maine’s Homeless Response Hub Coordinators, in partnership with Maine Continuum of Care and MaineHousing.

How To Help

- Multiple volunteer positions available
- Training will be provided
- Can’t volunteer? Donations will be accepted as well

Questions? Contact your local Hub Coordinator by visiting mainepit.org/hubs – click on the Hub that covers your county to send a message to your Hub Coordinator.
